ORDER

The background of this Order is as follows:

Defendant Ross Roggio's November 28, 2022, correspondence (Doc. 187), docketed as a motion for reconsideration, is pending before the Court. With this filing, Defendant asks for an extension of time to prepare for trial and for the Court to reconsider the previous denial of his request to be allowed to file further pretrial motions. (Doc. 187 at 1-2.)

The Court finds no basis to grant either request. This case has been pending for over four years and Defendant has been given multiple opportunities to file pretrial motions. (See Docs. 46, 48, 64, 166, 168, 170, 172.) The trial in this matter was continued to February 6, 2023, with the Court's June 3, 2022, Order (Doc. 150), and both the Court and Defendant Roggio recognize the commencement date as a date certain (see, e.g., Docs. 163 at 4, 181 at 1).

As the Court has explained, because Defendant Roggio has retained private counsel, he is free to terminate current counsels' representation and hire new counsel. (See Doc. 182 at 1.) However, the Court will not alter its determination that the time for filing pretrial motions has passed. (Id. at 3.) As noted previously, should Defendant Roggio secure new counsel, said counsel will have the opportunity to file motions in limine with which counsel can present pertinent matters to the Court before trial. (Id.) Nor will the Court continue the trial based on the assertion that as-yet unretained counsel requires an extension of time as a condition precedent to entering an appearance.¹

ACCORDINGLY, THIS 6th DAY OF DECEMBER 2022, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT Defendant's motion for reconsideration (Doc. 187) is DENIED.
